SILVER THE MAIN ISSUE

Members of the National Demo eratic Committee in Full Sympathy With the Views of ex-Gov Stone in Regard to the Duties of the Coming Conventions.

New York, Aug. 29.-In response to a request from the Herald to Democrats throughout the country, who were in control at the Chicago convention, for their opinions upon ex-Gov. Stone's recent remarks in which he predicted Mr. Bryan's renomination in 1900, declared that silver would again be the prominent issue, and warned New York Democrats that they would be without standing in the national party if the Syractise convention next month should fail to uphold the Chicago platform or should nominate a gold standard Democrat for governor, many standard Democrat for governor, many raplies have been received from members of the National Democratic Committee in the Southern and Western States.

The tenor of their expressions indicates a widespread indorsement of the sentiments of ex-Gov. Stone and a disposition on the part of the silver leaders to force the New York Democracy to fall keto line with the rank and file of the house that carried the Expan hanner in hosts that carried the Bryan banner in the late Presidential campaign. Among the views of leading Democrats, as telegraphed to the Herald, are the fol-

John Gilbert Shanklin, member of the Democratic national committee, sees an irresistible move for Bryan. He says: "The nomination of a gold standard Democrat for governor will place the New York Democracy in a position toward the national Democratic organization which it ocupied at the Chicago convention in 1896-that is, entirely outside the pale of participation in the affairs of the party." Clark Howell, of Georgia, says: "No power on earth can defeat the renomination of Bryan if he will accept it, and that the currency declaration of the Chicago platform will be reaffirmed by the cratic national convention of 1900 is just about as certain as anything can

Colonel Bryan will be nominated by accumuation in 1930. Silver will be the man issue in this State and schemes to displace Bryan by de-signing politicias are proving futtle." E. C. Wall, of Wisconsin, declares that the States must go on record in support of silver. "A State convention," he says. "called for the grirpose of nominating candidates for the several Scate offices has no right or power to change the party erect, and nothing can be accomplished by trying to do it. The declarations of the national convention remain as the party principles until another national convention otherwise ordains. Hence, to the Democratic State convention there is no alternative left except to whide by the resolutions of the last na-

DEATHS ON THE BAIL.

The Killing of Brakeman Pettit Was Accidental. Acting Coroner Larkin W. Gazebrook station to investigate the causes of the death of Milton Pettit and Thursday Landrigan.

The former was a brakeman employed on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad. He lived at No. 530 Fifth Street southeast and leaves widow and two children. He was killed vesterday about noon while at work in the Anacostka freight yards. Thomas J. Landrigan was a machinist, thirty-five years old, and lived with his wife at No. 23 Virginia Avenue southwest. He was employed in the local shops of the same railroad company for which Pettit worked. It was about midnight that he started home and was run over by engine No. 7s near the South Oupitol Street crossing. Both legs were orushed and amputation was necessary. He did not survive the operation at the He did not survive the operation at the Emergency Hospital and died early this morning.

The following jury of inquest was sworn by Dr. Glasebrook: Charles Brill, George Gill, John F. Kelly, James Snow, William Fowler and William J. Kolb.

William Fowler and William J. Kolb.
Inquiry was first made into the death of Pettit. It was shown that he had been employed by the railroad company for nearly ten years. He went to his work yesterday in the Anacostia yards as usual, and was braking on several cars drawn by shifting engine No. 146, in charge of Engineer H. C. Sparks. The latter was the first witness called. He testified that Pettit was on the rear car testified that Pettit was on the rear car of the shift composed of six cars. He re-leased the brakes and the witness started the engine forward, but was signaled a moment later to stop, as Pettit had beel

Who signaled you?" asked a juror. "Mr. Downes."

The latter took the stand and gave his name as Martin Downes. He explained that one of the cars had been cut from the others. It was at that moment that Pettit, not noticing that the cars were separated, fell beween them. "I saw him fall," said the witness, "and five cars passed over him."

"How far were the cars separated?"
asked Dr .Glazebrook.

"I would he state to say," replied Downs. Upon reflection, however, he said he shought there was a space of ten or fixeen feet.

"I cannot say which car he fell from, I only saw him while he was falling and cannot say whether he was on the car next to the engine or on the first of the other five cars.

The jury was informed then by Dr. Ruffin of the nature of Petiti's injuries. One arm was broken and the eide of his head was crushed. "Death was due to shock," textified the witness.

Harry Lowry, employed in the telegraph lower of the railroad described the accident. Yardmaster Peter Oliver also testified, and the jury immediately de-cided that Potth's death was accidental.

Two more telegraphers have resigned from the service of the War Department. They are Night Chief Operator Benjamin Woodruff and his assistant, Charles Smith. These men are in sympathy with their colleagues, but in their letters of resignation refrain from any criticism, attributing their desire to leave the service to the general undesirable conditions, and not to specific complaint.

Said Lieut. Pierson, the officer in charge, whom the operators charge with injustice and petty exactions:

"This is a game two can play at and the best hand will win. When those operators left I made up my mind to outwit them, and I have done so by bringing men from the Signal Corps. They are splendid operators; yes, splendid; look at them," and Lieut. Pierson pointed admiringly to his new force. Con inuing, he said:

"The report that those men who are on army pay must live at the barracks and must forsake home is not true. I De intend to have them escorted home to and fro daily."

Queried as to pay for the men he has pressed into service, the lieutenant said: "They shall be placed on a commercial

THE CASE OF MRS. BOTKIN. Efforts of Counsel to Prevent Her

Extradition. San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 29.-Acting District Attorney Hosmer, on behaif of the Delaware authorities will resist the efforts of Mrs. Botkin's attorneys to secure her freedom. He has in consultation with Chief Lees several hours yesterday, going over the evidence so far gathered by the local police. At the con-clusion of the conference Mr. Hosmer

"The State will oppose releasing the accused woman. She was arrested on a warrant, duly issued on a sworn com-plaint, and is, therefore, within the hands of the law. But one point is raised in their petition for a writ of habeas corpus—that Mrs. Bodkin is not extradi-table, because she is not a fugilive from justice. Her attorneys contend that she has never been in the State of Delaware and, therefore cannot be a fugitive. We contend that she is."

The police are on the track of a man who it is expected will add new links to the chain of evidence that now binds Mrs. Botkin. This man was at Station Mrs. Botkin. This man was at Stateda D postoffice in this city, one day, four weeks ago, when a woman called and mailed what appeared to be a candy box. He has not yet seen Mrs. Botkin, and whether she is the person he saw or not

DRAWING THE COLOR LINE.

Democrats of North Carolina Enthusinstic and Enraest. Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 29.-The size of the Democratic county convention and the enthusiasm manifested show the great earnestness of the party. Persons outside the State have no conception of the vigor with which the campaign is being pushed on the "oalor line." Never has the line between white man and negro been so strongly drawn.

The Populists in a few counties have decided to have a straight fight and no fusion with the Republicans, and in a few counties, notably Bertle and Halifax, the Republicans adopt the same at titude regarding the Populists.

Children Flee From a Mad Dor. Compassville, Pa., Aug. 23.-A mad dog ran through the village yesterday morning and a number of children on their way to Sunday school had narrow escapes. Several dogs were bitten, includ-ing a valuable for terrier belonging to C. W. Compbell, of Washington. The mad dog was pursued by a gang of men armed with guns and was run down and shot near Honeybrook. All the dogs that were touten were summarily shot.
